

Angel Promises Fulfilled (The Angelic Letters Book 5)

Henry couldn't get over the fact that he had purchased Jennys home! It was all there in her diary that he had just discovered the day before. How they had met in 1956 and instantly fell in love and the wonderful summer that followed, only to end when Jennys family moved away. Although separated for thirty-two years, their love was sustained by an angelic power that had never waned. If only he had known sooner that his teenage sweetheart was critically ill in the care home just miles away the time they could have spent together! Incredibly, Camilla, too, had just discovered the truth that Jenny is her birth mother and on her death bed in the care home that Henry is racing to! Fear grips Camilla at the thought of losing her mother again will she ever find out if Henry is her birth father? Even Father Engelmann had been astonished to learn that the Jenny he had been seeing in the care home for the past few months was the same young girl that had frequented his store so long ago and Henry's first love. He knew there was something special about Jenny Hamilton... but how could he possibly have known? In his final act of love and in hope that the two lovers can finally realize their deep love for one another, Father Engelmann offers his life for Jennys. There is no greater love than to lay down ones life for a friend. Will the Lord accept Fathers plea to take his life for Jennys? Can Camilla and Henry reach Jenny in time? And what of Jenny and her wish to her guardian angel to see her beloved Henry and Camilla before she dies? Can her angels solicitude to God answer Jennys prayer?

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
