

Visits by Our Friends from the Other Side

This, Tom Harrison's original book about the amazing psychic/ spiritual phenomena of materialisation they had through his mother's mediumship is being reprinted by special request of several friends who like to give it as a gift to those they feel need its help. Throughout the 8 years the circle was able to sit they had the whole range of phenomena from apparitions to voices and fully formed Spirit people standing amongst them. Four years after Tom originally had this book printed he realised that he had omitted to mention anything about life in the Spirit world and so a folded loose sheet was inserted with each copy; the following year another sheet with the extract from Col. Dixon Smith's book New Light on Survival was also added. We have reproduced the book as Tom first set it up but with the two extra pieces now included in the book itself. The story is more fully told in Life After Death: Living Proof (2008) but this is an introduction to the subject.

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
