

I Married My Rapist, so what?

Sometimes life throws curved balls and we aren't prepared to bounce back with a better sense of Divine direction. In between these pages I will discuss my path taken to overcome living as a victim of sexual violence. I learned to speak my truth again and write a new story of empowerment while living authentically as a Woman. Our experiences do not define our future rather prepare us for a better NOW. As I share my story, I also give each reader the opportunity to begin writing theirs. Each discussion is filled with seeds of ancient wisdom and ready to take shape and form new patterns of thought that expands the consciousness of the reader. Enjoy creating your story and reading mine. As always Love. Over. Victimized. Experiences to Heal!!

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
