

On the Far Side of the Sea: Psalm 139

On the Far Side of the Sea is not your typical book of poetry. This is a devotional book (or a journal) of poetry written between myself and God. I asked God to deliver me from the bondage of my past through writing. This book was born one summer when the Holy Spirit guided me to Psalm 139. I felt God urged me to memorize it. While doing so, I was blessed beyond measure. One particular verse touched me deeply, Psalm 139:9b-10 (NIV), If I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast. I believe God showed me; even on the far side of the sea (when we feel lost) he is with us. His right hand refers to his guidance. So even when we are lost, he is with us. What a wonderful comfort to know the Great Shepherd keeps his eyes upon us no matter how far we feel from him! If you are in love with the Psalms from the Old Testament, you will enjoy this modern day version of one soul crying out to God in writing.

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
