

The View From My Window: Carcinoid Cancer and Me

Just my luck to end up with a cancer few people have heard of-the big C: carcinoid. A rare cancer is growing in my small intestines, and Im wondering why me? and why not me? _____ You have assuredly succeeded in sharing your story in a way that offers hope and support to all readers-those experiencing cancer, caregivers, and anyone seeking a personal view of illness. Youve managed to convey your story with humor, and your insights will be thought provoking to readers. I thoroughly enjoyed the book; I admire your humor and most certainly your determined spirit, Lizzie Warren, Editor

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
