

Mechanism of Human Relationship: An Agnostic View

This book explores little bit about the various belief systems; superstitions and delusion in the name of religion; deliberate deceits by institutions; willful blindness by devotees; controversial and improbable doctrines in scriptures; a peek view about some of the future technologies which will obliterate many of our belief systems. It discusses about how believers follow religion; how institutions utilize religions; how religion restricts peoples urge to know the truth; how that ignorance and indifference is exploited by deceptive leaders and terror maniacs. It demonstrates with examples that many of our economic decisions, political policies, and domestic to international conflicts are all influenced by ideologies and racism. Amidst all these, majority of the people lead a life by maintaining superficial relationships and with skin-deep adherence to religious philosophies and attaching gods as mere peripherals. Though it is the human nature to adapt, adopt, evolve, most of the faithfuls cling to the primitive creeds which were created few millenniums ago. Our thought processes have degraded to the extent that beliefs have eclipsed the truths and the spin doctors ensures that the masses are hostages of this spectrum. What is stopping us from changing? Are we prisoners of our own makings? Should we change? If not what will happen?

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
