

Life is a Fight to Keep your Spirit Strong

Almost everything outside of your own pure thoughts is someone else's ideas or illusions except for science, mathematics, the physical laws of nature and the supernatural Creator-God of the Universe. The structure of government you live under probably called a representative democracy is a pile of bull someone created. It's a big fraud. We could do a lot better than that. We could easily rule ourselves online. That's real democracy when you have no representatives. Everyone casts votes on all the big issues. There is the pure you in your true nature and the artificial values of the world. Most people start living by the artificial values of the world which is everything outside of the pure you as soon as they start having consciousness at about the age of two and never really contemplate who they might be away from everything they were taught to believe in so by the time the average person reaches adulthood, they're basically capitalist pop culture clones trying to be cool and successful as defined by the system. A few young people get heavily indoctrinated by religion. Naive people want to major in psychology at college. They don't realize it's a bunch of capitalist crap, another growth industry that keeps coming out with new meaningless knowledge about human life all the time. Everybody has all the wisdom of the human condition inside of them if they're willing to analyze their own lives as the loners we all are despite the pretenses we live under about being deeply connected to other people, groups, clubs, sports teams and society. We all have the same DNA given to us by God. There is nobody or no group of people that can reach higher insights than any reasonably intelligent individual trying to discover who he or she is purely. It's you alone with an engine that runs your life called your free spirit but most people don't know that. They're trying to fit into the system and way of life they've been sold all their lives.

You have to earn a living but you dont have to sell your soul to the outside world. The most natural thing in life is to love yourself. Its all fine and good because its natural. Youre born that way. Society tries to make it seem uncool but its human nature. The Book of Corinthians in the Bible says love others like you love yourself. This is very hard to do. I say try to respect others. If you cant love them, dont be mean or evil to them. Just stay out of their way. Its better to be silent than to say or do something negative to somebody who has done something against you. I believe the Law of Nature and the Law of God is to take what you need and leave the rest. I believe all greed, frivolity and material excess is evil. There is a righteousness sense of inner accountability inside of everyone. You intuitively know when you upset the balance of life by taking way more than you need. This causes inner disharmony within ones soul. People with way too much money and things know there is something wrong with living in extreme frivolous, material excess while many people are homeless and hungry. Everybody has got carnal fantasies of debauchery and hedonism. Live by your true nature. Do what comes naturally. Just dont break any laws or hurt other people or animals doing it. Free spiritism is the pursuit of natural pleasures. Sex is good. Dont be ashamed of it. Be true to who you are. People say Im a hypocrite saying I claim to be a Christian with this free attitude about sex. I say God made me this way. My true standard is the inner voice God gave me. I respect all life while being true to myself. I need to feel that my life has meaning. Your sense of natural inspiration should always be alive and active. When you lose that spark, you lose everything including your connection to the energy God gave you to do something with thats worthwhile to you and the world. Life is really simple for enlightened people. I am simply spiri

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
