

The Message Of New Thought

The Message of New Thought by Abel Allen ~ 2008, first published in 1914. Edited by Rev. Lux Newman & Quimby Society New Thought is not a religion of yesterday or a philosophy for tomorrow - but for today. It is a religion of life and for mans use. Its purpose is to teach man how to live now and to find the highest and best in life. Our yesterdays are gone, our today is here. Yesterday is only a dream, tomorrow is only a vision. We cannot control the past, but we can perform the duties of today. Today will be the past tomorrow; we can only make it glorious by acting well today. New Thought presents a religion of life and that the best preparation for the continued existence of the soul, after the last great change, is a life worthwhile here. This has been the message of the masters of thought in all ages. New Thought is a philosophy of the living, a religion for today.

We've started our countdown to National Handbag Day on October 10, and that means we'll have special features for you every day, right up to the big event! Today, we're here to talk about the intersection of celebrity and accessories, and more specifically, how the two can become intertwined in public consciousness for years. The kinds of stars who carry a particular bag do a lot to shape the market's perception of it and the designer who created it, which is why so many brands give out free bags to stars now: they're hoping to create positive associations. In the cases you see below, though, things came along a little bit more naturally. You can't rush love, after all. Think of a bag-celeb duo we missed? Let us know in the comments!
